Soon after the incident he gains powers and gains the ability to exorcise demons. As the only exorcist that can do that, he is thrust into a world of intrigue and mystery. To be honest this is one of my absolute favourite series in the anime universe. There is so much more to this show than meets the eye, it is something to be enjoyed rather than scrolled through. The characters are all well rounded, with every one having their own likable moments, this is something that really helps build the world and makes it better. If you are expecting another show to be nothing more than just battles, demons and mysteries, then you will be absolutely disappointed. This is a show about what it means to be a hero, something that is very important as we have been living in a world that is so focused on the materialistic. This series offers you a look into what it means to be a hero, something that you can be proud of and should be viewed and enjoyed as such. The soundtrack also adds a lot to this series and fits the world perfectly. All in all this is a must watch and one that you should not miss. Some warnings are in place that are not that relevant but are there so that I am not held accountable for any bad language or actions. Spoiler for Hints: The official site says that there is a prologue but this is a bit misleading, all the events start in the second episode and the prologue has more to do with what the characters think of themselves. At the end of episode 1 the hero stands on the roof of the girls' dorm and his super powers are shown to us. Rin appears to be searching for his mother as this is where he gets his powers There are demon battles in each episode and some of these are hard to explain as some of the powers of the demons will randomly appear in the battle. Characters can fight each other if they know they can fight (i.e. they agree) A scene from episode 3 (9/11) Rin in episode 3 battling two demons Another demon battle in episode 3 Rin and his friends investigating the school in episode 3 The enemy of the school is a demon in episode 6 Rin battles a demon with Aomine Rin is training to become a hero Next time on the Ao no Exorcist World Tour with a 82157476af
